APPENDIX

Indiana Foreign Corporation Act of 1907, Section 1 (2 Burns Annotated Indiana Statutes, 1926, § 4909):

> Before any foreign corporation for profit shall be permitted or allowed to transact business or exercise any of its corporate powers in the State of Indiana, other than insurance companies, building and loan companies and surety companies, they (it) shall be required to comply with the provisions of this act and shall be subject to all the regulations prescribed herein, as well as all other regulations, limitations and restrictions applying to corporations of like character organized under the laws of this state.

Indiana Foreign Corporation Act of 1907, Section 9 (2 Burns Annotated Indiana Statutes, 1926, § 4918):

> Every foreign corporation amenable to the provisions of this act, which shall neglect or fail to comply with any of the provisions of the same, as herein provided, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one thousand ($1,000) dollars nor exceeding ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction, and it is hereby made the duty of the secretary of state, as he may be advised or may ascertain that any corporation is doing business in contravention of this act, to report such fact to the attorney-general, and it shall be the attorney-general's duty, and the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the proper county to bring such action at law as shall be necessary for the recovery of the penalties imposed hereby, and, in addition to such penalty, if, after this act shall take effect, any foreign corporation shall fail to comply herewith, no suit may be maintained, either at law or in equity, upon any claim, legal or equitable, whether arising out of contract or tort, in any court in this state.
